

Subject: New Online Training Course for the National Service Criminal History Check Requirements
Date Sent: June 19, 2013

National Service Criminal History Check

New Online Training Course for the National Service Criminal History Check Requirements

CNCS has developed a new online training course for grantees on the National Service Criminal History Check requirements. The course walks you through scenarios on determining who to conduct checks on, what types of checks apply to whom, considerations for accompaniment, what should be maintained as documentation, along with other helpful guidance. A link to the course and its associated materials has been posted to the Knowledge Network.

Reach the course by clicking here: Online Course