

Program Non-Harassment and Civil Rights Policy – March 18, 2021

AmeriCorps (the Corporation for National and Community Service adopted the operating name "AmeriCorps" as of September 29, 2020) has zero tolerance for unlawful harassment of any individual or group of individuals engaged in national service. AmeriCorps is committed to treating all persons with dignity and respect. Our agency prohibits all forms of discrimination and harassment based on race, color, national origin, gender, age (40 and over), religion, sexual orientation, disability (mental or physical), gender identity or expression, political affiliation, marital or parental status, pregnancy, reprisal, genetic information (including family medical history), or military service. All programs administered by or receiving federal financial assistance from AmeriCorps must be free from all forms of discrimination and harassment.

Harassment may include slurs and other verbal or physical conduct relating to an individual's gender, race, ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, or any other legally-protected status when such behavior has the purpose or effect of interfering with service performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive service environment. Examples of harassing conduct include but are not limited to: explicit or implicit demands for sexual favors; pressure to engage in a romantic relationship or for dates; deliberate touching of another person without consent, leaning over, or cornering a person; repeated offensive teasing, jokes, remarks, or questions; unwanted letters, emails, or phone calls; distribution or display of offensive materials; offensive looks or gestures; gender, racial, ethnic, or religious baiting; physical assaults or other threatening behavior; and demeaning, debasing, or abusive comments or actions that intimidate.

AmeriCorps does not tolerate harassment from anyone, including any AmeriCorps employee or supervisor; a project or site employee or supervisor; a non-employee (e.g., client); a co-worker; a national service participant. Any discrimination or harassment, when identified, will result in immediate corrective action, up to and including, removal or termination of any individual engaging in such misconduct.

All recipients receiving AmeriCorps financial or volunteer assistance, including individuals, organizations, programs, and/or projects are subject to this zero-tolerance policy. Recipients must take immediate corrective action to investigate and rectify any complaints of any discrimination or harassment. Any AmeriCorps awardee permitting discrimination or harassment in violation of this policy will be subject to a finding of non-compliance, which may result in termination of federal financial assistance.

Harassment based on upon race, color, national origin, gender, age, religion, sexual orientation, disability, gender identity or expression, political affiliation, marital or parental status, pregnancy, reprisal, genetic information, or military service is unacceptable in AmeriCorps' offices or campuses, in other service-related settings such as training sessions or service sites, and at service-related social events. I expect supervisors and managers of AmeriCorps programs and projects, when made aware of alleged discrimination or harassment by employees, national service participants, or any other individuals, to investigate and take prompt action to effectively address any discrimination or harassment. AmeriCorps prohibits any retaliatory action against a person who raises any discrimination or harassment concerns.

If you believe you have been discriminated against in violation of any civil rights laws, regulations, or this policy, or have been subject to retaliation for opposing discrimination or participating in discrimination complaint proceedings (e.g., as a complainant or witness) in any AmeriCorps program or project, contact the AmeriCorps Equal Opportunity Program (EOP). The EOP may be reached at (202) 606-7503 or eo@cns.gov.

The EOP manages national service participant civil rights and harassment concerns. You must contact the EOP within 45 calendar days of an occurrence of discrimination or harassing conduct. You are not required to use a program, project, or sponsor dispute resolution procedure before contacting the EOP. If you choose to pursue another dispute resolution procedure, it does not suspend the 45-day time limit requirement to contact the EOP. Discrimination and harassment claims brought to the attention of the EOP outside 45 calendar days of an occurrence may not be accepted for investigation in a formal complaint of discrimination.
